City to Resume Normal Disconnect Policy

The City of Stephenson will resume their normal utility disconnect policy with the June meter read schedule. The City had temporarily suspended disconnects inline with the Governors executive orders. As of June 12, 2020, the Governor has rescinded the order allowing utilities to resume normal policies. If you receive a disconnect notice and are unable to pay please contact City Hall. The City may be able to advise you of possible outside agencies available to help.

If you have additional questions call City Hall at 906-753-6228
